LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

NOTICE.

PRIVATE BILLS.

NOTICE is hereby given that the time limited by the Standing Orders of the House for receiving petitions will expire on Friday, the 21st day of February, 1947. Private Bills must be presented to the House on or before Tuesday, the 4th day of March, 1947. Reports from Standing or Select Committees on Private Bills must be received on or before Tuesday, the 11th day of March, 1947.

Dated the 16th day of January, 1947.

R. S. STUART YATES,
4715-ja23 Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated September 25th, 1944.

R. S. STUART YATES,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 21751.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Industrial Inter-Communications Company of B.C., Ltd.," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 17th day of February, 1947.

The authorized capital of the Company is ten thousand dollars, divided into one hundred shares of one hundred dollars each.

The address of its registered office is Room 201, 678 Howe Street, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To manufacture, make, assemble, buy, sell, import, export, hire, lease, handle, and generally deal in communications and voice-carrying equipment of all kinds and descriptions, radio systems and appurtenances of all kinds, equipment, accessories, and recording devices used or associated with the foregoing, and generally to carry on business as manufacturers, producers, dealers, merchants, factors, agents, importers, and exporters, and to handle and deal in any and all goods, wares, or merchandise:

(b.) To carry on any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or to render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(c.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, inventions, licences, concessions, and the like concerning any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use, or any secret or other information as to any invention, which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(d.) To carry on the business of wholesale, retail, general commission brokers, manufacturers, mercantile agents, and jobbers, and generally to undertake, transact, and execute all kinds of agency business:

(e.) To acquire and hold shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stocks, bonds, obligations, and securities issued or guaranteed by any company wheresoever situated or carrying on business:

(f.) To take part in the management, supervision, or control of the business or operations of any company or undertaking, and for the purpose to appoint and remunerate any directors, accountants, or other experts or agents:

(g.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of a business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, and as consideration for the same to pay cash or give shares, or to enter into any obligations or agreements for deferred payments as the Company may think fit:

(h.) To sell or dispose of any undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company, wheresoever incorporated having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company:

(i.) To make gifts and donations to any person, firm, or corporation for any purpose whatsoever, whether such person, firm, or corporation be a member of this Company or not.

The word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs hereto shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company), but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

To lend the Company's money on real or personal security and generally to carry on business as agents, and to undertake and carry out all business transactions and operations (except such matters as are prohibited by the "Companies Act"), as an individual capitalist might lawfully undertake and carry out, and to lend and advance money to such parties and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company; and to make, draw, accept, endorse, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other and all negotiable instruments, and to guarantee the payment of money and the performance of contracts by any such person, firm, or corporation:

(j.) To act as brokers and agents for any person, firm, or company, and to undertake and perform sub-contracts, and also to act in any of the business of the company through, or by means of agents, brokers, sub-contractors, or others:

(k.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(l.) To take securities of such nature as are deemed expedient for any moneys loaned by or owing to the Company:

(m.) To enter into contracts for the allotment of shares of the Company as fully or partially paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price of any property, real or personal, purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration including services rendered to the Company, as the Company may from time to time determine:

(n.) To remunerate any director of the Company or person or persons for services rendered or to be rendered in or about the conduct of the Company, and such remuneration may be in cash or by allotment of fully-paid shares of the Company or in such manner as the Company may determine:

(o.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, or other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(p.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects or in part similar to those of this Company:

(q.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(r.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.
